MEMBERSHIP

ELIGIBILITY

The membership of the Society shall be open to persons who except in the case of Special Honorary Members, are resident in the Republic of South Africa. There shall be the following classes of members –

(a) REGISTERED BREEDER

A natural person over the age of eighteen years, who is a South African citizen, company, close corporation, partnership, trust or body corporate which has a stud with recorded prefix registered through the Arab Horse Society of South Africa on behalf of the breeder by the Registering Authority on the Intergis and which person, over the age of 18 years, a South African company, close corporation, partnership, trust or body corporate duly incorporated and registered in South Africa who is the registered owner of a registered or recorded mare with the Arab Horse Society of South Africa, which mare is two years and older, and that mare has bred a foal that is registered / recorded under the prefix of the registered breeder. A registered Breeder will thus enjoy the right to vote at any general meetings, special meetings and or Provincial meetings. A Registered Breeder which is a company, close corporation, partnership, trust or body corporate shall be represented and shall enjoy the rights, duties and privileges of a Registered Breeder through one natural person over the age of 18 years appointed and nominated by the said company, close corporation, partnership, trust or body corporate as its official representative in terms of the Constitution.

(b) HONORARY LIFE MEMBERS

For special services in the interest of horses, a person may at an Annual General Meeting be elected as Honorary Life Member who shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of membership, including the right to vote at any meeting of the Society and the right to be elected to the Council, provided that no such person shall be eligible for Honorary Life Membership unless recommended by the Council.

(c) SPECIAL HONORARY MEMBERS

Persons not necessarily actively engaged in the breeding of horses may be elected Special Honorary Members by the Council upon such conditions as the Council may determine. Special Honorary Members may not vote at meetings of the Society and are not eligible for election to the Council.

(d) JUNIOR MEMBERS

Persons under the age of eighteen (18) years may become Junior Members by approval of the Council, subject to their parents or guardians counter-signing the application for membership and accepting full responsibility for the financial and other commitments towards the Society on behalf of such junior member. Junior members may not vote at meetings of the Society and are not eligible for election to the Council. Upon payment of the scheduled fees, they may partake in the other activities of the Society.

(e) STUDENT MEMBERS

Persons who are eighteen (18) years of age or older and registered for full-time study may become student members by approval of the Council. Student members will be accorded the same rights and privileges as junior members and shall automatically become Registered Breeders upon conclusion of such studies. Part-time students may also qualify for student membership.

(f) ASSOCIATED MEMBER

Any person whom is 18 years old or older and is resident in the Republic of South Africa may become an associated member of the Arab Horse Society of South Africa. This membership will entitle the member to participate at any event organised and or affiliated to the Society. Such member however has no right to vote or put forward any suggestion at the AGM, or any other meeting, and may not be elected on Council or any other position within the Society.

(g) SPECIAL BREEDER

Any person who is 18 years old or older and is a Foreign National can become a Registered Breeder, but will not enjoy the rights and privileges of the Society and or be eligible to be elected into any position in the Arab Horse Society of South Africa.
